

Murat Kuru was graduated from Gazi University Department of Civil Engineering in 1985 and completed his Master of Science in Civil Engineering in the Middle East Technical University in 1988. He completed his master's degree on soil mechanics research and applications, and he is experienced in highways, motorways, railways, intersections, bridges, viaducts, tunnels and construction supervision services conducted under the FIDIC Conditions of Contracts within the scope of various transportation design and construction supervision projects. He is an experienced MSc. Civil Engineer in the positions of Chairman, General Manager, Team Leader, Project Manager.

He is the Chairman of Proyapı Engineering Consultancy Inc. which actively provides engineering and consultancy services in Middle East, Central Asia, Eastern Europe and has an excellent command of English.

---